

Fig. 3. Monthly rainfall totals between 1981 and 1995 at the Ortoire Estate. The heavy black arrows indicate periods when the consecutive number of months exceeded the average of two. The grey arrow indicates the marginally above average drought period (see text for details). The intervals between census midpoints are indicated to show in which the above average drought periods occurred.